

Let the Lord Build Your House

Purpose: Provide couples a clear concept of what makes a marriage truly Christian.

Session #1 – Inspecting the Foundation of Your Relationship

Key Question – Who do you live for?

Session #2 – Evaluating the Design of Your Marriage

Key Question – What does your marriage look like?

Session #3 – Testing the Defenses of Your Marriage

Key Question – How are you protecting your relationship from the storms of life?

Session #4 – Allowing the Lord to Build Your House

Key Question – How are you letting the Word and Spirit shape your marriage?

About our teacher . . .

Fred Raupp grew up in Willow Grove, PA coming to know Christ as a child. He studied electrical engineering at Lafayette College and worked in industrial controls for five years before attending Dallas Theological Seminary, where he obtained his Th.M. in Pastoral Ministry in 1997. He has been married to his wife Renee for 19 years (as of Feb. 20, 2012). They have two children, Freddy 14 and Lauren 12. He has overseen the overall operation of the ministry and pastoral care/ counseling at Christian Fellowship Church in New Holland for 12 years. He enjoys the outdoors, hiking and photography. He has always had a special interest in helping couples enjoy great marriages and has enjoyed working with many couples over his pastoral ministry.